

Happy Friday, Grizzly Students and Families!! The first week of school is coming to an end! As we move through the year, we hope you'll find the information shared in the What's Happening at the View each week helpful! There is A LOT going on with lots of opportunities for students to get involved. Items are generally listed chronologically, and each section will have a headline.

Current and previous editions of the What's Happening are also available on Creekview's homepage by clicking the Newsletter icon on the Parents and Community section, or from the drop-down menu from About.

As always, at the end of the What's Happening you will find a sports calendar with our events for the week and links to purchase your tickets. Our Gridiron Grizzlies are kicking things off tonight with a scrimmage against Cherokee at home tonight! The theme is Jerseys!

We will be on a regular bell schedule next week. The bell schedule may be found on Creekview's homepage as a drop-down from the About tab.

We have a New Assistant Principal and Counselor!

They might be new to Creekview, but our new Assistant Principal, Nancy Henson, and Counselor, Michele Dowd, bring a wealth of knowledge and experience to us.

Ms. Henson is starting her 26th year in education as a Grizzly. She comes to us from Woodstock High School where she served as an AP for 5½ years. Before becoming an administrator, Ms. Henson spent 17 years in the classroom in Special Education, also coaching soccer for most of those years, and 3½ as a Special Ed Facilitator. She has 11-year-old boys at Creekland and spends her free time running between various sporting events with her boys.

A CCSD graduate herself, Mrs. Dowd joins the Grizzly family with 8½ years of experience. She was a counselor at Polaris Evening Program for 6 months, then served as a counselor at Etowah High School for the last 8 years. She has a Bachelor's degree in Psychology and a Masters in School Counseling. Ms. Dowd loves working with students and helping them realize their goals. Her favorite thing to do is go to the beach and spend time with her family.
