Title
Recognition of Creekview High School Senior Ty Hubert for Being Named as a Candidate for the U.S. Presidential Scholars Program
Requested Action
School Board Recognition of Creekview High School Senior Ty Hubert for Being Named as a Candidate for the U.S. Presidential Scholars Program
Summary Explanation and Background
As a candidate for the U.S. Presidential Scholars Program, Ty Hubert of Creekview High School is among only 5,000 students from the more than three million graduating seniors in the nation's Class of 2022 selected to participate in the prestigious recognition program. Only 156 students from Georgia were named candidates. The U.S. Presidential Scholars Program was established in 1964, by executive order of the President, to honor and recognize extraordinary graduating seniors. Candidates for the invitation-only recognition program are initially selected based on outstanding performance on the ACT or SAT. For the next round of competition, semi-finalists will be selected based on an application that considers overall academic excellence, personal character, leadership and service activities. Finalists will be selected based on further review of their success in these areas, with 161 Scholars to be named in the spring. Scholars receive national recognition and an invitation to an all-expenses paid trip to the White House. A scholar athlete leader, Ty serves as his school's Student Delegate to the Cherokee County School Board, and as Student Government Association class president, captain of the varsity football team and varsity lacrosse team, and president of the Rho Kappa National Social Studies Honor Society. He also is a member of the school's wrestling team, National Honor Society and Beta Club, earned the AP Scholar Award and was twice nominated for Governor's Honors. A Mu Alpha Theta school math tutor and Fellowship of Christian Athletes group leader, Ty also serves in the community including as a volunteer for House of Hope and Goshen Valley Boy's Ranch.
