School Board Recognition of Sequoyah High School Freshman Lily Carras as the 2019 CCSD Eighth-Grade Short Story Writing Contest Winner
Summary Explanation and Background
In the Fall of 2018, all seven CCSD middle schools implemented new English/Language Arts curriculum activities and assignments for students. Within the new curriculum, one of the assignments specifically designed for eighth-grade students was to create an original short story which would be placed into a local competition for best submission (by school). Following the determination of each local middle schools' winning submission, a team of judges then selected an overall winner for the School District. From among the over 3000 original submissions, the SY2018-19 winning entry "The Folly of Joy" by Lily Carras was selected as the winner of CCSD's first annual CCSD Short Story competition. Lily attended Dean Rusk Middle School and is currently a freshman at Sequoyah High School.
