

Volunteer at Next Step Ministries!

Who We Are:

Next Step Ministries is a nonprofit organization located in Woodstock, GA that works with special needs adults who have aged out of high school. Our goal is to strengthen the skills our clients learned in school and other settings through the use of interactive activities while also trying to get them engaged with their community as much as possible. We do this by going on weekly trips to the bowling alley, volunteering sites, and other fun locations.

Volunteer Opportunities:

Companion Volunteers:

Assist our clients with fun activities such as cooking, bowling, exercise, and crafts!

Special Talents Volunteers:

Share your unique talents through fun activities like storytelling, playing music, leading a cool craft session, etc!

Saturday Respite Volunteers:

Join us the 1st and 3rd Saturday's of the month for a fun day where we watch movies, play board games, and have pizza for lunch!

How to Volunteer:

Step 1: Fill out our application

Go to nextstepministries.net/volunteer and fill out our quick application*

Step 2: Schedule an orientation

Orientation is a great time for you to learn more about who we are and what to expect as a volunteer. This is also a great time to ask any questions you may have!

Step 3: Start volunteering!

After you have completed orientation, you are ready to start volunteering; Hope to see you soon!

* If you are under 18 years old, a parent or guardian must also sign off on volunteer application/forms
