

Outside Employment

School District employees are reminded that their job assignments within the School District are their first obligation and that outside employment must not interfere with the employee's job assignments with the School District. Each administrator has direct responsibility to determine if outside employment is interfering with job responsibilities.

Endorsements

No employee of the School District will give a written or oral endorsement to any company or representative for promotional purposes for any product (e.g., article, book, software, program, etc.) which may be offered for sale to parents or students in the School District.
